Club Heads Dr. Burden On Patterns

Dr. Charles Burden, chairman of the Marine Resources Committee, was granted a leave of absence from the commandant of the Commandant's Office, Fort Popham, during his tour of duty as head of the club house.

After his introduction by Mrs. Irene Thompson, program chairman, he spoke on the activities of the Interservice of the Bath and Marine Resources Committee and the eight months he has been here as head of the Patterns, a great shipboard organization.

He was introduced in detail to all the different rooms in the museum, and the exhibits contained. He also explained what is on display in the museum this year. He said that the exhibits may wish to do some work on the Patterns.

It was announced that Mr. Burden was interested in the Marine resources committee, and he was given a tour of the Patterns, which is located at 1 North Street, formerly owned by Frank H. Smith, former publisher of the "Bath Evening Record."
